CAREERS IN LAW

Legal Process Outsourcing

- Legal Processing outsourcing (LPO) is the delegation of core legal functions like making first drafts of cases, compliance work, legal research, etc. to an external counsel. The assigned task is completed on the basis of set parameters and fixed timelines. You can become an important part of reputed MNCs by forging a career in LPO.

Academia

- A career that not only allows you to pursue your intellectual interests and work on research projects, but also offers a wide degree of flexibility and autonomy and pays you to read, talk and think.

Civil Services

- One may also opt for the Civil Services Examination conducted by the Union Public Service Commission, which is the most prestigious examination in the country.

Judicial Clerkship

- A judicial clerkship is an extremely valuable experience for students interested in either litigation or transactional work; it provides invaluable insights into the workings of the legal system. Law clerks act as legal assistants whose duties vary from court to court and judge to judge.

Media and Law

- As professionals, both journalism and law are intertwined as they require superior research and writing skills as well as a critical knowledge of the government and the legal system. Legal journalism covers legal proceedings in courts, arbitration events, criminal matters, etc., which are disseminated to the public.
- Legal Publishing: Lawyers get an opportunity to work as editors for various types of print and electronic media. It is a good option for those with a knack for writing.
- Law Reporting: One can take up a career as a law reporter with TV channels and newspapers. Ranging from high profile cases to concerns related to social issues and human rights, a new path for lawyers has opened up in this field.

CAREERS IN LAW

Litigation

The traditional career path is to "practice law" in the courts. But it is essential for any fresh graduate to learn the ropes under a Senior Counsel. The graduates are now supposed to qualify a Bar Exam before they join the Courts of Law. Litigation provides a wide range of employment options in both private and public spheres. You may specialize in a particular field of law such as Taxation, Constitution, Family, etc. You can choose to focus on appellate work, trial-level practice, civil litigation or criminal cases.

Corporate Counsel

- You may work with a company/corporate entity as an in-house legal counsel, advising on legal matters related to its business. An in-house counsel plays an important role in drafting, vetting and negotiating contracts; ensuring and monitoring compliance with rules and laws; and handling legal disputes.
- Private Sphere: One may join Multi National Corporations, Private companies, Private Banks, etc.
- Public Sphere: Counsels are also required in Government Agencies, Public Sector Undertakings, Public and Nationalized banks, etc. These government organizations usually recruit lawyers through a written competitive exam followed by an interview.

Law Firms

- These are business entities engaged in the practice of law. A noticeable trend that has emerged in the last few years is to shift from solo practice to well organized law firms, which comprise several lawyers working together as one entity. As part of a law firm, one advises clients about their legal rights and recourses as well as other legal matters

Judicial Services

- The State Judicial Services Examination organized by the High Courts for their respective states, is a safe and sound option for those of you, who wish to pursue a stable government career.

स्टूडेंट्स के लिए ऑफलाइन एग्जाम के फायदे

- उलझे सवालों को हल करने के लिए बार-बार कम्प्यूटर मॉनीटर को स्कॉल कर से मुक्ति मिलेगी. इससे स्टूडेंट्स को अधिक फायदे होंगे.
- कम्प्यूटर की गड़बड़ी या सर्वर में गड़बड़ी से परीक्षा नहीं जाएगी बेकार.
- ग्रामीण परिवेश के कैंडिडेट्स के लिए ऑफलाइन मोड आसान माना जाता है.
- लीगल अटीट्यूट और अंग्रेजी संवर्धन में रीडिंग कम्प्रीहेंशन के उलझे सवालों में भी ऑनलाइन एग्जाम ज्यादा टाइम कंज्यूमिंग था. अब पेन और पेपर मोड में यह आसान हो जाएगा. क्योंकि अधिकतर स्टूडेंट्स इसी मोड में बचपन से पढ़ते हैं.
- जो स्टूडेंट्स कम्प्यूटर पर टेस्ट देने की अधिक प्रैक्टिस नहीं कर पाए हैं, उन्हें ऑफलाइन परीक्षा देने में कोई कठिनाई नहीं होगी. स्कोर अच्छा कर सकते हैं.
- कम्प्यूटर पर लगातार दो घंटे बैठकर एग्जाम देने से भी राहत मिलेगी.

“ अब पूरी परीक्षा क्लैट के नियंत्रण में रहेगी और इसमें स्टूडेंट्स को उलझे सवाल करने में सुविधाएं होंगी. ग्रामीण क्षेत्र के स्टूडेंट्स भी बेहतर तैयारी कर सकेंगे.

कम्प्यूटर के फ्रीज हो जाने और अन्य तकनीकी गड़बड़ी से अब स्टूडेंट्स को राहत मिलेगी. ऑफलाइन यानि पेन पेपर मोड ज्यादा आसान है.

WHY LAW?

It's the time of year when board examinations are over or about to end. This is the time when students are haunted by the confusion prevailing over the various fields which they should opt for after finishing school. Be it preliminary choice post matriculation or final step towards building their career post intermediate examinations. Gone are the days when the choices were confined to engineering and medical. With the establishment of NLUs and five year integrated law programme, it has become the first choice for thousands of youngsters.

Prior to 2008, every law school in country conducted its own entrance exam. Thereafter, the direction of Supreme Court of India to conduct an integrated exam for entrance to various national law schools, resulted into the formation of CLAT – Common Law Admission Test on the lines of CAT – Common Admission Test for Indian Institute of Management (IIM's) or IIT – JEE for Indian Institute of Technology (IIT's).

At present there are 18 Law schools under CLAT and also some of the NLUs conduct their own nationwide entrance exam. With the envision of NLU or National Law University in every state of India, the popularity of National Law Schools are day by day increasing and forming a league of its own.

Coming back to the question why law? Legal education is not just about being buried under piles of books, case laws and Latin maxims. It is way more than that. A good legal education empowers the individual unlike any other discipline; it inculcates personal autonomy, intellectual bent of mind and development of critical life skills beyond the reach of any other discipline.

Some of the great personalities who changed the world, like Abraham Lincoln, Barrack Obama and Mahatma Gandhi, chose the legal field. In today's era, where information is freely exchanged, it won't be hard to come across the realities behind the career options. All of us must be aware that in the gloomy days of global recession the demand for doctors and lawyers never decline.
